 - 4. Consulting with other agencies within the criminal and juvenile justice system and community services agencies in the formulation of agency policies and procedures
- B. Employees must, as much as possible, participate in the formulation and review of policies, procedures, and programs for operating and maintaining the department, adult and juvenile correctional facilities and operations.

- D. All staff, including contract personnel and volunteers, must be responsible for the proper implementation of department regulations, policy, and procedures, and must review the same on an ongoing basis as additions and revisions are issued.
 - 1. Staff who become aware of breaches of department regulations, policy, or procedures must make their concern(s) known to the appropriate appointing authority as soon as possible without fear of retaliation and with confidence that their concerns will be adequately addressed.
- E. All staff, residents, and offenders must be afforded timely and unhindered access to all department regulations, IMPPs, and General Orders, except that "Staff Read Only" documents must be available only to staff and not to residents/offenders.
- F. In both the development and review of KARs, policies, and procedures, consideration must be given to ensure that they address, and are responsive to, inherent gender-based differences of residents/offenders.

II. Internal Management Policies and Procedures (IMPPs)

- A. To provide consistency, prevent misinterpretation and ensure effective and efficient achievement of department goals, IMPPs governing departmental operations and activities must be developed in a standardized written format, maintained and disseminated to all DOC employees, contract staff, and volunteers.

 - a. Each MTM must establish a process for ensuring that endorsed proposals are forwarded in the proper format, and in a timely manner, according to the procedures outlined herein.
